Dear Frank:

We recently established a Senior Seminar Program which is limited to twenty of our most promising officers. I understand that you may be able to meet with them on the afternoon of 24 April. I certainly hope so, since they would profit greatly from hearing about USIA and its programs. I have asked the Senior Seminar staff to get in touch with your office and provide additional details about the Seminar. Please be assured that if you can spare the time it will be greatly appreciated by all concerned here.

Sincerely,

Dear Frank:

I am delighted to confirm the arrangements made informally with your office for you to speak to the CIA Senior Seminar on the afternoon of 24 April.

Our Office of Training has recently developed the Seminar program which is limited to 20 senior CIA officers. Your discussion of USIA objectives and activities will fit most appropriately in that portion of the Seminar which focuses on the U.S. National Security structure.

Further details will be provided by the Senior Seminar Staff to your office.

Sincerely,

MEMORANDUM FOR: Executive Director-Comptroller
SUBJECT : Invitation to Senior Seminar Speaker

1. This memorandum requests you to sign the attached letter to Mr. William B. Macomber, Jr., Deputy Under Secretary of State for Administration, confirming arrangements made by the Senior Seminar Staff for him to speak to the Senior Seminar in April.

2. As you know, Mr. Macomber addressed members of the first Seminar in October during their "Day at State" which included a series of meetings with senior officials in the Department. He impressed them as a candid speaker whose remarks and observations forcefully conveyed the attitude of State Department officers towards CIA activities overseas.

3. The Seminar Staff learned from their State contacts and Mr. Macomber's Staff Assistant that he found the last session stimulating and would enjoy meeting with the Senior Seminar again.

4. Mr. Macomber is scheduled to speak on State-CIA relationships on 18 April from 1400-1600 hours in the Chamber of Commerce Building.
